A Jeffersonian Honored.

Judge Geo. T. Todd is in receipt of letter as given below. He was attending school at Hampton, Va., in 1857, and attended the celebration then, and now he is honored with an invitation to be present at the anniversary held May 13th.
The Association for the Preservation of Virginia Antiquities, Richmond, Va., May 4, 1907.
Dear Sir:—In recognition of your distinction, as a spectator of the ceremonies on the Two Hundred and Fiftieth anniversary of the landing of the first permanent white settlers in North America, at Jamestown, James River, Va., this Association bestows on you the enclosed red ribbon badge, bearing in gold the letters—1857—Jamestown—1907, with the hope that you will be present, and will wear the badge at the ceremonies on Jamestown Island, James River, Va., May 13th, 1907.

Yours respectfully,
Mrs. J. Enders Robinson,
Cor. Secretary.

Dr. Lorenz, the Vienna specialist, said that he never could be persuaded that time was money as long as they thought it necessary to be present personally while their shoes were being blacked. It is strange when one comes to think of it that we have a habit of looking on during the blackening of our shoes while its nearly always when our backs are turned that our characters are blackened.

There are three steps in life that makes epochs—when the baby takes his first step across the room, when the son takes his first step into business life, and when the man, his work finished, steps into the great beyond.
"Silent" Smith seems to have followed the example of his eocen-tric benefactor by passing the bulk of his great fortune on to a distant and almost unknown relative.

It is said that the general health of our army was never so good as at present. The reports also state that there is a great dearth of army surgeons. Whether there is any connection between the two facts every man is allowed to decide for himself.

A great deal of this third term talk of "prominent officials" comes from men who are less interested in another term for Roosevelt than in their own re-election.

Washington, D. C., is beginning regard to milk—one of the first

Thousands Have Kidney Trouble and Don't Know It.

How To Find Out.
Fill a bottle or common glass with your water and let it stand twenty-four hours; a sediment or settling indicates an unhealthy condition of the kidneys; if it stains your linen it is evidence of kidney trouble; too frequent desire to pass it or pain in the back is also evidence of kidney trouble.

What To Do.
There is comfort in the knowledge so often expressed that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy, fulfills every wish in curing rheumatism, pain in the back, kidneys, liver, bladder and every part of the urinary passage. It cures inability to hold water and scalding pain in passing it, or bad effects following use of liquor, or beer, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often during the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases.

If you need a medicine you should have the best. Sold by druggists in 50c. and $1. sizes.
You may have a sample bottle of this wonderful discovery and a book that tells more about it, both absolutely free by mail, address Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper.

Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy, and the address Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

Conclusive Evidence.
The following letter is self-explanatory, and shows conclusively the opinion the Vice President and General Manager of the Cotton Belt Railway has of the Telegraphy department of the Tyler Commercial College, the leading school of Telegraphy in America:

Tyler, Tex., Feb. 5, 1907.
Tyler Commercial College, Tyler, Tex.: Gentlemen—This letter is given you in order to avoid having to answer so many letters of inquiry relative to this company's connection with your college, and I beg to state for the information of students, that we have placed a loop of our main line wire thru your college for the benefit of your students, and are furnishing you our telegraph and station blanks. We have also agreed to employ your telegraphy graduates who can pass our regular examination to fill vacancies coming up on this line, and will pay them the standard rate of wages for the position they are employed to fill.

The minimum salary operators constituting one day, all time in excess of 12 hours will be paid for on basis of proportion of regular rate.

after being excused by the dispatcher will be allowed fifty cents the regular rate thereafter.

CRYING FOR HELP.
Lots of It In Jefferson But Daily Growing Less.

The kidneys cry for help.
Not one organ in the whole body so delicately constructed.
Not one so important to health.
The kidneys are the filters of the blood.
When they fail the blood becomes foul and poisonous.
There can be no health where there is poisoned blood.
Backache is one of the first indications of kidney trouble.
It is the kidney's cry for help. Heed it.
Doan's Kidney Pills are what is wanted.
Are just what overworked kidneys need.
They strengthen and invigorate the kidneys; help them to do their work; never fail to cure any case of kidney disease.

Read the proof from a Jefferson citizen.
W. E. Singleton, Sr., who was for years Clerk of the Federal Court at Jefferson, Texas, now retired, living two miles northeast of town, says: "Doan's Kidney Pills have been used by me and I found them to be as good as any remedy I ever tried for lame back. I have no hesitation in recommending them to others."

THE HELL-BOUND TRAIN.

Tom Gray lay down on the barroom floor.
Having drunk so much he could drink no more.
So he fell asleep with troubled brain And dreamed he rode on a hell-bound train.

The engine with blood was red and damp
And brilliantly lit with a brimstone lamp.
For fuel an imp was shoveling bones, While the furnace rang with a thousand groans.

The boiler was filled with lager beer,
And the devil himself was the engineer; The passengers there were a motley crew, Church member, atheist, gentile, Jew.

Rich men in broadcloth, and beggars in rags.
Handsome young ladies, and withered old bags, Yellow and black men, red, brown and white,
All chained together in terrible plight.

The train dashed on at an awful pace And a hot wind scorched the hands and face;
Wild and wilder the country grew,
And faster and faster the engine flew.

Louder and louder the thunder crashed, And brighter and brighter the lightning flashed; Hotter and hotter the air became,
Till the clothes were burned from each quivering frame.

Now in the distance arose a yell;
"Halt! halt!" cried the devil, "we're nearing hell!"
Then, oh, how the passengers shrieked in pain,
And entreated the devil to stop the train.

But he capered about and sang in glee,
And laughed and joked at their agony:
"My faithful friends, you have done my work
And the devil can never a pay day shirk!"

"You have bullied the weak and robbed the poor,
And the starving brother turned from your door,
You have laid up gold where the canker And given rein to your fleshly lusts.

"You have justice scorned and corruption
And trampled the laws of nature down, You have drunk and rioted, murdered and lied,
And mocked at God in your hell-born pride.

"You have paid full fare, so I'll carry you through,
For 'tis only just you should get your due;
Why the laborer always expects his hire,
So I'll land you safe in the lake of fire.

"Where your flesh shall roast in the flames that roar,
And my pains torment you forever-more!"

Then Tom awoke with an agonized cry.
He was soaked with sweat and his hair stood high,
And he prayed, as he never had prayed before,
To be saved from drink and the devil's sire.

And his vows and prayers were not in vain,
For he rode no more on a hell-bound train.
